#553 PROCLAMATION, CABELL COUNTY COMMISSION

RE: VACANCY, OFFICE OF CLERK OF THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF CABELL COUNTY

Beth Thompson, County Administrator, read aloud the proclamation appointing Phyllis Smith as Clerk of the Commission of Cabell County, West Virginia.

Nancy Cartmill, Commissioner, moved to approve the proclamation appointing Phyllis Smith as Clerk of the Commission of Cabell County, West Virginia. Jim Morgan, Commissioner, seconded the motion and the vote was unanimous.

Robert L. Bailey, President, stated fifteen outstanding resumes had been submitted for the position of Cabell County Clerk, and the decision of who would be appointed had been hard to make. President Bailey stated he was confident Mrs. Smith would do an excellent job as Cabell County Clerk. President Bailey went on to say Mrs. Smith was very well qualified for the position, having served as recorder for the City of Milton, with responsibilities regarding finance and program coordination.

Nancy Cartmill, Commissioner, stated she would like to say the City of Milton’s loss was Cabell County’s gain.
Chuck Zerkle, President, stated he would like to welcome Phyllis Smith to the courthouse, and considered it an honor and a privilege to have the opportunity to work with her in the coming days.

Phyllis Smith, County Clerk, stated she would like to thank the commission for having faith in her abilities, and appointing her to the position. Mrs. Smith stated she would do a good job, and work with the commission to solve any problems that might arise. Mrs. Smith went on to say she knew she had big shoes to fill, but also knew she had a wonderful staff to help her along the way.

Robert L. Bailey, President, adjourned the special meeting of the Cabell County Commission at 10:05 a.m.
